

Best Selling Author Coming to Salt Lake City

USA-Today best-selling author Monica Ferris will appear at the RMR EGA Seminar 2010 on June 17 and 18, 2010. She will attend at least one class on the 17th, make a speech at the banquet that evening, and be available to sign her books on the 18th.

Ms. Ferris is the author of thirteen novels in the Betsy Devonshire needlework mystery series. Titles include Crewel World, Hanging by a Thread, Embroidered Truths, Knitting Bones, Thai Die, and Blackwork. Her stories are set in the little town of Excelsior, Minnesota, and center around the owner of a needlework shop who knits while she ponders clues.

Ms. Ferris is from Minneapolis. Learn more about her at www.Monica-Ferris.com. Look for her at the RMR Seminar 2010. She'll be the one in the exuberant hat.
